

CINDY SLADE (2018)

Growing up in Hopewell, she danced socially at the area's lake pavilions and community venues during the late 60's. In October 1998 she met the second love of her life - Carolina Shag. Within 5 years, she and her husband were totally involved in the Richmond Shag Club and all of its many functions, including the golf tournament, the annual party and Sunday socials, and most notably, as Vice President and President of the club.

The dance itself remained the central reason, and she served on the dance committee and as an active instructor for many years. She became immersed in the activities of Central Virginia Junior Shaggers, as social committee chair, major contributor, and founding member of the Virginia Junior Shaggers, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit, serving as secretary/treasurer, and in any capacity otherwise needed at Junior events.
